

The rebranding of the “Fantacycling” logo has seen a transformation oriented towards minimalism, while maintaining the central element of the letter “F”.

The main changes have focused on the simplification of lines and shapes, with the aim of creating a cleaner and more contemporary image.

The letter “F”, which represents the identity of the brand, has been retained as a key element, stylized to symbolically evoke the head wearing the helmet and the upper part of the body with the limbs of a cyclist seen from the side.

This detail, represented in a refined and stylized way, gives the logo a dynamic and sporty identity. The restyling thus reflects an essential and modern vision, in line with current trends in graphic design.
